Richard K. Mastain, Executive Secretary

SUBJECT: Renewal of Clear Standard Teaching Credentials

On Friday, March 3, 1989, the Commission reviewed its policy for the renewal of clear Standard Teaching Credentials and voted to change the two-year renewal cycle which these credentials have always had to a five-year renewal cycle to correspond with credentials being issued under the current law. This decision becomes effective immediately and concerns every holder of a clear Standard Teaching Credential whose credential expires 6-30-89 or later.

The holder of an expired clear Standard Teaching Credential who applies for reissuance of that credential will receive a document issued effective the date the application is filed to expire on the fifth June 30th following the issuance date.

We are including a copy of this letter with each clear Standard Teaching Credential we issue to explain the reason for the five-year renewal cycle. In addition, we will send corrected documents to those teachers who applied early for their June 30, 1989, renewals and received only two years instead of five.

If you have questions, please contact our Information Services Office between 12:30 and 4:30 weekday afternoons at (916) 445-7254.
